Chinese	6	4	2	.667
Waikapu	5	2	3	.400

The Chinese proclaimed themselves to be as strong as the Saints last Sunday by taking the Asahis into camp by the score of 10 to 2, and they are now tied with the Saints for first place.

The play off for the championship of the first series will begin Sunday between these two teams. Both have been materially strengthened and seem about evenly matched. Both Manager A'o and Manager Santos express confidence in their ability to carry off the honors next Sunday.

It was decided at the meeting of the league last Tuesday night that a special series of three games will have to be played by the contending teams to decide the championship.

There will only be one game Sunday starting at 2:30 p. m. The Asahis have forfeited their game to the Waikapu as agreed in the meeting of the league.

The second game last Sunday, was by the Hamakupokos and A. & B. team the former winning the game, 13 to 5.

Score by innings as follows:

A COMING WEDDING.

The coming marriage of Miss Edith Keola to Mr. John Wilmington, which will take place on Tuesday, December 28, was announced to friends of the young people this week. The ceremony is to be performed in the morning by the Rev. J. C. Villiers, following which they will take the Claudine for Hana for a brief honeymoon.

Miss Keola is a well known teacher in the Wailuku public school, and the daughter of J. N. K. Keola, of the County Engineer's office. Mr. Wilmington is the operator at the telephone station in Wailuku, and has a large circle of friends.

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT.

Word was received here this week of the death of Mrs. May Lowrey, formerly of Maui, which occurred on November 19, at her home in Alameda, following an operation. Mrs. Lowrey was well known on Maui, as the wife of Edward Threlkell, head luncheon of the Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Company, who died about seven years ago. Following the death of her husband she left the islands and was later married a second time. During her residence on Maui her home was at Camp 1. The deceased was a cousin of William Decoto, of Lahaina, and a niece of W. G. Lowrey, formerly manager of the H. C. & S. Co.

County Cuts Insurance From Its Expenditures

At its meeting last week, the county supervisors decided not to carry insurance on any of the county property except on the county clerk's office building, the county garage, in Wailuku, the automobile fire truck, and another autotruck. The matter came up in connection with the proposal submitted to renew insurance on a number of buildings which have heretofore been insured. It was the sense of the members that the county could better afford to take the risk of fire on the bulk of its property, than to pay the premiums on insurance.

As is now stands none of the school buildings or other structures are protected against fire, except the two buildings mentioned in Wailuku.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT.

In the Second District court this week, Charles Copp was permitted to resign as guardian of the Ralston minors, and Judge Edings appointed Henry Smith, of Honolulu in his place. The new guardian took over his duties and the custody of $756, the property of the children.

An action to quiet title was filed in the circuit court yesterday by W. A. Clark vs. Jose Silva. The suit had been previously brought against Mrs. William Miner, but was later dismissed.

Eugene Murphy, last week, brought suit against E. H. Hart, and W. T. Robinson and J. Garcia, as his bondsmen to recover money claimed to have been deposited with Hart, as clerk of the court. Later an answer was filed by the defendant Garcia in which denial was made that he had ever gone on Hart's bond. It is understood that it was A. Garcia instead of J. Garcia, who is Hart's bondsman.

Judge Edings departed for Honolulu on Wednesday afternoon and will not return until after the holidays. There will be no work in the circuit court, therefore, until after the first of the year.

PLAN TO CANCEL MRAKET HOUSE LEASE.

Unless the county supervisors change their minds during the next twelve months, the Wailuku public market will be abandoned within another year. At present time they lease the property from the Maui Market & Land Company, and sub-leases to stall keepers. It is claimed that the county has but two tenants, however, and that it pays out eight or ten times as much as it receives on the property. The lease may be canceled in another year, and notice of such intention was given at last month's meeting. The supervisors, however, expressed their willingness, at last week's meeting, to listen to any new proposition which the owners of the property expressed a desire to submit.

As an advertising feature, the Maui Dry Goods & Grocery Company has begun the display of some choice fireworks. The first exhibition began last evening, and attracted attention of residents in all parts of central Maui. It is announced that this will be a feature nightly between now and Christmas.
